

Submitting Statehouse Testimony

STEP 1

Learn about the legislation

It is very important to learn about the bill and understand its intent and impact beyond the news headlines and talking points. Read the bill as written and the accompanying Legislative Services Commission (LSC) quick analysis. After reading, seek out different perspectives for and against the legislation to understand all facets of the bill. Lastly, be sure to join the bill's committee mailing list to receive hearing notices and updates about the bill.

- Read the bill as-written (underscored text is new language, strikeouts are deletions)
- Read the Legislative Services Commission (LSC) Analysis of the bill
- Watch the sponsor hearing and read the sponsor statement for the bill
- Research the information from trusted experts, professionals, and organizations
- Join the committee's mailing list by contacting the committee chair's office via email or phone

You can find bills, LSC analysis, and committee information on the Honesty website and the Ohio Legislature website

STEP 2

Decide how you will testify

Testimony is your opportunity to speak directly to an Ohio Representative or Senator and influence how they will respond to legislation in their committee. In Ohio, there are two different ways to testify at the Statehouse: In-Person and Written

- In-Person Testimony is presented live at the Statehouse during the appropriate committee hearing. Hearings are open to the public and televised live on The Ohio Channel (and recorded for later viewing).

- Written Testimony is submitted via email to the chair of the committee and uploaded to the legislature website as a public record.
- Prepare your testimony NOW,

STEP 3

Prepare your testimony

Determine your position on the bill. It's best to use your lived experience or professional expertise to support your position. Use these writing prompts to help shape your testimony. Remember to be concise and focus on 1-2 points in your testimony.

After you've decided your point of view, use this testimony template to format your testimony. Open by introducing yourself, your title, role, or expertise on the subject matter, and your position on the bill.

Tips:

- In-person witnesses are allowed five minutes for their testimony. Be sure to time out your remarks to ensure you're under the five-minute mark.
- There is no limit for written testimony; however, committee members tend to stop reading after the second page.

- Watch in-person testimony - start 37:35
- Read written testimony - HERE

STEP 4

Submit your testimony

IMPORTANT: You must wait for the committee to formally announce the testimony hearing before submitting your testimony. Committees may reject your testimony if you submit before a hearing is announced.

You must email this completed Witness Slip and your written testimony to the chair of the committee at least 24 hours in advance of the scheduled hearing.

When emailing your witness slip and testimony to the chair:

- Indicate which bill you are testifying about and your position (opponent or proponent) in the body of your email and on the witness slip

- Send a PDF version of your testimony
- Ask for a confirmation of receipt

STEP 5

Presenting In-Person Testimony

PLAN TO ARRIVE EARLY:

Arrive at the Statehouse at least 30-60 minutes before the hearing is scheduled for parking and seating. You can park in the Statehouse Parking Garage or on the street.

You must go through a metal detector when you arrive. You can ask the security guards to direct you to the committee room where your hearing is being held.

Be prepared to stay late. Committees usually have multiple bills up for a hearing and can last anywhere from a few minutes to several hours.

READY TO TESTIFY:

Committee hearings are televised live and recorded for later viewing on The Ohio Channel.

Witnesses are allowed five minutes for testimony.

Speak directly to the Committee, and, if possible, make eye contact rather than read your testimony verbatim.

Be prepared to answer questions. Committee members are allowed to question witnesses after their statements. This is an excellent opportunity to provide greater detail about your perspective or expertise. If you cannot answer a question, it is OK to answer “I do not have that answer” and/or “I am happy to send you that information after the hearing.”

Bring several copies of your printed testimony for your own reference and to share with allies, reporters, or lawmakers, if asked.

Stage Fright?

Here are some helpful tips to help alleviate any anxiety around public speaking or addressing lawmakers. REMEMBER, our elected officials work for us. You are exercising your right to speak with public servants who are in the Statehouse to serve you!

Testimony Etiquette

- Always address the chair first before answering another committee member’s question. For example, “Through the chair to the Representative/Senator

- It is OK if you forget to address the chair
